Death Notices

Henry Banfield

From Cleveland newspaper, date excluded from clipping

Henry Banfield, of 184 Merchant avenue, was buried from St. Augustine's church Monday morning. High Mass was celebrated by the pastor, Father O'Connor. Mr. Banfield was born in England seventy-five years ago. He came to this country when very young and has resided on the South Side about fifty years. He was a member of Jennings Avenue Congregational church until one month ago, when he expressed a wish to become a Catholic. He at once sent for Father O'Connor who gave him the necessary instructions before receiving him into the Church. He died a happy death, being fortified by the sacraments of the Church. He leaves a wife and four children, three sons who live in Kansas City, and one daughter, Mrs. J. Russ, of 182 Merchants avenue, this city, who are all members of the Church.

Mrs. Mary Mugan

The Kansas City Journal (Missouri) Wednesday, April 19, 1899

Mrs. Mary Mugan, wife of Patrick Mugan, an oldtime resident of Jackson county, died at Walnut Grove Monday. Mr. Mugan came to Kansas City forty years ago and engaged in the lime business. His old kiln at Twenty-third street and Grand avenue, which was his place of business for many years, still stands. About five years ago he moved to Walnut Grove, Mo., and has since been in the lime business at that place.

Mrs. Mugan leaves seven children: Mrs. B. T. O'Dowd, Mrs. George M. Banfield, Mrs. John Wheeler, Mrs. W. T. Potter, Miss Mollie Mugan and Messrs. Edward and Richard Mugan. The body was taken to the home of Mrs. Barney O'Dowd, 3246 Highland, and the funeral will be held from the Redemptorist church at 9 o'clock Thursday morning. Auto Injuries Kill Writer Esther Bush

Mrs. Esther Mugan Bush, San Diego writer and composer, whose famed "Silver Strand Waltz" was danced to by Wallis Simpson and the then Prince of Wales the night they met at a Coronado ball, died today from injuries suffered in an auto accident. She was struck last night at Fourth Avenue and Ash Street.

Mrs. Bush, 77, a widow, lived at 1555 Fourth Ave. She died in Quintard Hospital. She was struck and thrown 30 feet, police reported, by an auto driven by Mrs. Juanita Cutchin, 34, of Long Beach.

Driver Is Charged

The accident occurred in a crosswalk. Mrs. Cutchin was cited on a charge of going through a red signal light.

Mrs. Bush's body was taken to Goodbody's Mortuary.

Her death, and the death Tuesday of Morris Goldberg, 64, of 4115 Twigg's St., raised the City-County traffic fatality toll for the year to 123. Goldberg was injured June 27. An autopsy showed death was due to the accident, Deputy Coroner M.T. McKisic said.

Member of Press Club

Mrs. Bush is survived by a sister in Kansas City and a niece, Mrs. Harold Huonker, who is coming here from Long Beach.

Composer of more than 100 vocal and instrumental compositions, Mrs. Bush also was a prolific writer. She was a member of the San Diego Branch, League of American Pen Women, and the San Diego Press Club.

"The Silver Strand Waltz" was one of her best-known pieces. It was played at Hotel de Coronado the night of the history-changing start of the romance that forced Edward VIII of England to give up his throne to marry Mrs. Simpson.

Thomas Gleason

Birth: Dec. 23, 1870

Death: May 20, 1950

Thomas Gleason was born on 23 December 1870 and his parents lived in Belfast, Ireland, which is probably the location of birth. At the age of 17 he emigrated from Ireland to America. The port of entry could have been New York or Philadelphia, most likely Philadelphia.

Thomas and Hannah were married on 13 November 1889 at St. Patrick's Church in Kansas City, Missouri. Michael Reagan and Hannah's cousin, who is also named Hannah Dougherty, were the witnesses. Father Thomas F. Lillis was the priest, and he later became a Bishop.

On 5 March 1892, Thomas was naturalized in Jackson County, Missouri.

In 1900 U.S. Census, Thomas and Hannah lived at 1400 E. 14th Street above the saloon that he operated at that time. The children listed in the 1900 census were Mary Ellen (Nellie) (1890),m John Edward (1892), Thomas Patrick (1895), and Margaret Mary (1899).

In the 1910 Census, the couple lived at 1607 East 33rd Street. Tom and Hannah had all nine children living at this location with them. Tom was listed as "Keeper of Saloon."

In the 1920 Census, the couple still lived at 1607 East 33rd Street, with these children: Thomas Jr., Margaret, Catherine, Joseph, Noreon, and Frances. Thomas is listed as Owner of Saloon.

Tom Pendergast was Sunday Dinner guest often. Dates uncertain.

By the 1930 U.S. Census, the couple, Tom and Hannah, had moved to 5124 Virginia Avenue. The children listed in the household were Catherine, Joseph, and Frances.

Margaret Marie (Gleason) Mcllvain indicated in her 1930 U.S. Census that her parents were from County Clare. (This is in question.)

Thomas died on 20 May 1950 at St. Mary's Hospital in Kansas City, Mo. Thomas's parents were John Gleason and Mary Ellen (Nellie) Hurling (Hurley). Tom's father, John, was born in ca 1840 in Ireland. His parents probably stayed in Ireland.

Nora Gleason, administratrix, business address 1215 Commerce, home address 516 Woodland. Amount of bond $9000.00 sureties: Honora J. Woods, 516 Woodland Ave.; Emma M. Woods, 516 Woodland Ave.; Edward P. Woods, 108 South Askew Ave., June 9, 1925. Attorneys: Walsh and Aylward.

Application for Letters Testamentary or of Administration. In the matter of the estate of Patrick J. Gleason deceased, now comes Nora Gleason and states that deceased died the 15th day of September, 1924, intestate and was at that time a resident of Kansas City, Jackson County, Mo. That the probable value of $12,000 estate is personal $8000; real $4000. That the names and residence of the widow, heirs....are respectively as follows: Nora Gleason, wife, 516 Woodland; Mary Woods Gleason, daughter, 516 Woodland.

Application of Nora Gleason for letters testamentary or letters of administration on the estate of Patrick J. Gleason. Citation to next of kin. In the matter of the estate of Patrick Gleason, deceased, to Nora Gleason, on the motion of Thomas Gleason, a person interested in said estate, you are hereby cited to appear before me on Tuesday the 9th day of June 1925 at 10 o'clock a.m. and qualify as administrator of said estate.....

In the probate court of Jackson County, Missouri, at Kansas City, May term 1925, in the matter of the estate of Patrick Gleason, deceased. Motion to issue citation to widow to commence administration. Now comes Thomas Gleason and state that he is a brother of Patrick Gleason, now deceased; that the said Patrick Gleason departed this life on or about the 15th day of September, 1924, without leaving a will and leaving surviving him as his widow, Nora Gleason, and as his only child and his sole heir at law, Mary Woods Gleason, a minor of the age of eight years.

Petitioner further states that at the time of his death, the said Patrick Gleason was a resident of the state of Missouri, domiciled in Kansas City, Jackson County, Missouri, and was possessed of and owned an estate, consisting of both real and personal property, of a considerable size; that at the time of his death, the said Patrick Gleason and this petitioner owned together as tenants in common, the following described real estate in Kansas City, Missouri, to wit: All of Lot 293, Phoenix Park, an addition in said city, said property being improved with seven store-rooms; that the said property is unencumbered and is worth approximately Fifteen Thousand ($15,000) dollars; that all of said stores have been and are rented, and your petitioner has been collecting rents therefrom and remitting to the widow, Nora Gleason, the one-half thereof, to which said estate is entitled.

Your petitioner respectfully further states that he has commenced, and there is now pending, in the Circuit Court of Jackson County, Missouri, at Kansas City, under number 211, 263, a suit to partition the above-described real estate between your petitioner on the one part and the above-mentioned child and widow of the decedent on the other; that besides the interest of the said estate in the said real property, the estate of the said Patrick Gleason, deceased, is made up of large bank deposits and other personal property of considerable value.

Your petitioner further states that he has no personal knowledge as to whether or not deceased left any other debts or if any other than your petitioner's claim is outstanding against said estate; that notwithstanding, the petitioner does not feel justified in continuing the remittance of one-half the rents to the widow of the decedent to the possible jeopardy of the creditors of the estate.

Further, your petitioner states that no application of any kind has been made to this court for the administration of this estate.

Therefore, petitioner prays the court to cite the said widow, Nora Gleason, to appear and qualify for the administration of said estate, and that if she fail so to do within the time allowed by law, the court grant letters of administration to such other suitable person as to it may be deemed right.

Frank J. O'Leary, attorney for petitioner
